Volume XIII

FOREWORD

As days slowly pass into years, lives are filled with enhancing memories long to be stored in the depth of minds.

We, the 1960 Turkey Tail Staff, have tried to recall these old moments and present the life at Glen Alpine High School.

The future holds for us fond remembrances of the things that happened through the years. . . .Freshman Initiation. . . .Biology and those frogs. . . .Basketball gamesFootball. . . .Junior-Senior. . . .gathering in the halls. . . .the wonderful Washington trip. . . .and finally, the hour of Graduation.

In the years that are to come, these hours will be forgotten. Only by pictures and meeting old friends will their occurrences be renewed. It is for this purpose we are endeavoring to leave with you an impression of your life.

Never forget your high school days, its joys and its sorrows for certainly.

This Is Your Life

As we turn the pages of the Turkey Tail, the clock moves its hands through a typical life story of high school, from the Freshman year to the height of attainment, Seniors, thus recalling precious moments of hours gone by.

CLASS PROPHECY

Time: 7:30 p.m.
Place: Glen Alpine High School
Date: May 30, 1970

You are cordially invited to attend the reunion of the class of 1960. Come and be with all your friends and former classmates and bring back the old school spirit and goodtimes of the past.

As I stand on the steps of old Glen Alpine High, watching the graduates of 1960 arrive and greeting each one, I recall the joys, disappointments and pleasures of a high school teenager.

As I look for the first person to appear, whom do you think it will be? Why--it's none other than Joan and Rebecca Patton, who are now teaching in Washington, D. C. They tell me they are getting along fine and like the teaching profession.

Next, I see, arriving in a new car, Mitchell Morris and Dewey Fox. They are managers of a used car lot.

All the way from Wyoming come Tommy Carson and Clifford Patton who are forest rangers at Yellowstone National Park.

Kenny Anderson, you might know, still has his love for old model cars with "souped-up" motors and loud mufflers. He is a mechanic at Wells & Seals Garage.

Our Judy Arrowood is now very content as a basketball coach at Pleasant Gardens.

A car being driven by Francis Cannon arrives with the senior cheerleaders of 1960. Francis is now running a beatnik cafe.

The cheerleaders now appear as: Faye Kelly, a private secretary; Pat Deaton, a beautician; Becky Biggerstaff, a comedienne; Libby Black, Mrs. Royce Byrd (housewife); Nancy Duckworth, author of a lovelorn column; Anne Eggers, psychiatrist; Mindora Giles, caretaker of the small Giles'; Beckie Stamey, a Home Economics Teacher.

If the cheerleaders aren't enough to make you feel 10 years younger, take a look at the football stars of 1960--Bob White, a movie actor; Randy Parks, an English professor; Phillip Mangum, an insurance salesman; and Kenny Morrison, a race-car driver.

Barbara Brackett is a registered nurse, working in Charlotte, N. C. She lives at a boarding house run by Edith Cook.

Colin Brittain, arriving in the latest Ford, now runs his own dairy farm, which is maintained by the use of the latest equipment.

Because of their love of bus driving, we find Jimmy Crawley, Don Lowdermilk, and Stanley Jenkins serving the people of Burke county as drivers for the Suburban Coach Co.

Even tho' Tom Deese's dream of having a band of his own seemed vague in 1960, he is now appearing at the Coconut Grove with the "Jazz-Timers."

Richard Penley, still his old dependable self, is C. P. A. for the Internal Revenue Department.

Tom Wells, having gained much fame for his witty remarks writes gag lines for the Red Skelton Show.

Up the walk come the Mull twins, as we knew them. Jo is Mrs. William Honeycutt and Jack is married also. Jo is an architect and Jack is an interior decorator.

And now we see Georgia McDaniel and Louise Norman, laughing and talking as usual. Georgia is busy telling Louise about all the things that have happened around home, since Lou has been away for the past year as a Bell Telephone worker.

Whom do we see driving in now? Why--it's Letha Pritchard. As we talk to her we learn that she is now a concert pianist.

Because of their love for the lake, Jimmy Duckworth and Howard Crump are co-owners of a boatlanding.

We see Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens driving in now. She, the former Vickie Gurley, came home for our reunion.

Through many years of hard work, Alfred Davis has become a prosperous manager of one of Winn-Dixie Stores.

Roland Carpenter, a believer in close shaves, is a qualified barber.

We see Donald Morgan coming down the walk. He is making a career of the Air Force. He stops to speak to a few of his friends: Earl Bailey, a mechanical engineer; Tom Epley, a basketball coach; and James Honeycutt, a recruiting officer for the Army. Donald still has his friendly ways. He walks in with Eddie Justice, a very successful tobacco farmer.

And what is that driving in???? Oh! One of those foreign made trucks. On the side printed in large red letters BUTCH'S Radio and T. V. Service. We are not surprised to see it is our own Butch Hildebrand. As he goes to the door we see him speak to the two Mrs. Foxes. Linda and Jean, whom are accompanied by their children, since they couldn't find a baby sitter for all those little ones.

We see Pauline Foreman, now the assistant manager of Woolworth's, talking to Martha Holland, a French and Social Studies teacher.

Avis Anderson and Sylvia Chandler come up together. Avis, a former airline hostess, finally, married the boy of her dreams. Sylvia is a traffic patrol woman in Charlotte.

Mrs. James Brown, the former Sunny Browning, now works at the Shadowline with her husband.

Mrs. Ann Winters is a successful nurse now at Grace Hospital.

Last, but not least, we see Shirley Sisk coming in. She tests cigarettes for Reynolds Tobacco Company.

Everyone has arrived and we go in to the auditorium and sit in our senior places of honor. Mrs. Hemphill, whom we all remember from senior English, calls the roll. Everyone is present. We begin our program by standing and singing together our Alma Mater. We all think, "Gee, how everyone has changed."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of 1960, remembering our most precious moments of Glen Alpine High wish to bequeath some of them to our underclassmen, sincerely hoping their lives will be overflowed with the joys we loved.

We leave to Mr. Young, 4 boxes of aspirin for every year of headaches we have given.

- I, Pat Deaton, leave my beauty and smile to Carol Putnam.
- I, Becky Biggerstaff, bequeath my ability to stay out of class to Betty Jernigan.
- I, Sylvia Chandler, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Melton to Mackie Parton.
- I, Tom Epley, leave my class ring to anyone who wants it.
- I, Georgia McDaniel, bequeath my talkative ways and red hair to Janet Causby.
- I, Louise Norman, leave my height to Murray Spencer.
- I, Dewey Fox, leave my women to Jim Beach.
- I, Phillip Mangum, leave my enviable superlative, "Most Athletic", to Ed Berry.
- I, Pauline Foreman, bequeath my shorthand ability to my little sister, Bettie.
- I, Vickey Stevens, leave my married life to anyone lucky enough to find the right man.
- I, Jean Fox, leave my ability to catch a man upon sight to Linda Fox.
- I, Edith Cook, leave my quiet ways to Judy Grey.
- I, Barbara Bracket, bequeath my soft voice to Arlene Smith.
- I, Jackie Mull, leave my position as head majorette to Glenda Bowman.
- I, Stanley Jenkins, leave my bus to Gerald Allen.
- I, Mitchell Morris, gladly leave my bookkeeping-workbook to Ronnie Anderson.
- I, Donald Morgan, bequeath my ability to charm the women to anyone who can use it as sparingly as I can.
- I, Mindora Giles, leave my big mouth to Pat Reep.
- I, Faye Kelly, leave my position as editor of the paper to Carol McGalliard.
- I, Eddie Justice, leave my position as 4-H president to my brother David.
- I, Martha Holland, bequeath my studious ways to Joyce Epley.
- I, Anne Eggers, leave my "blast" at the Lions Bowl to some lucky Junior Girl.
- I, Nancy Duckworth, leave my easy-going ways to Alyce Faye Taylor.
- I, Jimmy Duckworth, leave my place in Geometry to George David McFalls.
- I, Earl Bailey, bequeath my hunting ability to Jerry Duckworth.
- I, Alfred Davis, leave my bus, #47, to anyone crazy enough to drive it.
- I, Tom Deese, leave my hardy laugh and jokes to Hampe Bobbitt.
- I, Jimmy Crawley, leave my drag racing to Oliver Abernathy, not that he needs it.

- I, Richard Penley, leave my dependability to Fred Epley.
- I, Shirley Sisk, bequeath all my good times in Morganton to Pat Causby and Norma Buchanan.
- I, Avis Anderson, leave my basketball ability to Quinn Hutchins.
- I, Kenny Anderson, leave myself a passing grade for next year.
- I, Howard Crump, leave my blonde hair to Bobby Pitts.
- I, Randy Parks, leave to a Junior the presidency of the Student Council.
- I, Judy Arrowood, bequeath my place in chemistry to all Juniors.
- I, Libby Black, leave my ability to go steady to Frances La Fevers.
- I, Colin Brittain, leave my typewriter to Vernon McCarthy.
- I, Sunny Nell Browning, leave my tardiness to "Lib" Butler.
- I, Francis Cannon, leave my supply of chewing gum and pencils to Ronnie Mode.
- I, Roland Carpenter, leave my flirtiness with lower classmen to Stanley Carpenter.
- I, Tom Carson, leave my cough medicine to Buzzy Patton.
- I, Linda Fox, bequeath my ability to keep secrets to Libby White.
- I, James Honeycutt, leave my love for gospel music to Carol Marie Carswell.
- I, Hilma Kale, leave the band's cymbals to anyone with sound-proof eardrums.
- I, Donald Lowdermilk, leave my happy-go-lucky ways to James Wilson.
- I, Ralph Mayfield, leave my model ways to any deserving Junior.
- I, Kenny Morrison, leave my likeness for "cute, little girls" to Norvin Clontz.
- I, Clifford Patton, leave my quiet ways to Tommy Hancock.
- I, Joan Patton, bequeath my ability at reading every book in the library to anyone who wants to try.
- I, Rebecca Patton, share my love for out-of-state boys with Edith Patton.
- I, Janice Stewart, leave my ability to get by with anything to my little sister, Kaye.
- I, Beckie Stamey, bequeath my F. H. A. presidency to Mary Ellen Mangum.
- I, Tom Wells, leave my wit and personality to Tom Watson.
- I, Bob White, leave my good looks to Russell Powell.
- I, Anne Winters, leave my ability to make good grades and to keep house, too, to Mary Deane Payne.
- I, Jo Mull, leave my ability to do something and get caught to Barbara Wright.

And, in closing, I Butch Hilderbrand, think I'd better stay, because I have nothing which I can afford to give away.

1960 is here!
Our year is ending.
All its hopes and fears,
In victory blending.

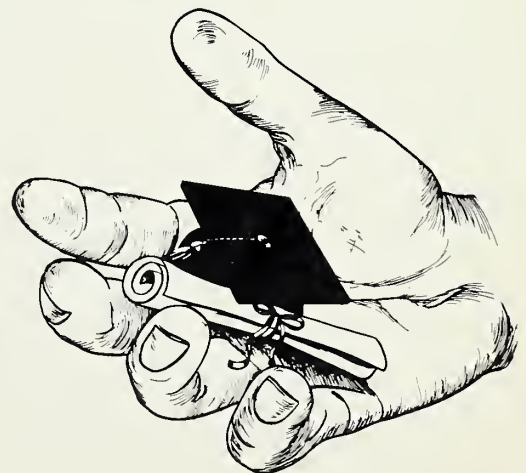

Great things were done of us,
In Science and Mathematics.
Large victories won of us,
Strong in Athletics.

Yet as we leave these halls,
Life's voice inviting,
Loud every Senior calls,
The last time. . . uniting,
Glen Alpine High Forever

Yes, truly, 1960 is here, our year is ending, filled with four years of joys and expectations. We leave behind a wonderful year guided by Bob White, president. Not until the day arrived when class rings shone brightly on fifty-nine hands did we feel fully qualified and deserving of our seniority. How we waived the battle of mid-exams is still a mystery. The highlight of four years came when we boarded the train for Washington, D. C.

As though awakening from a dream we don the cap and gown of a Senior. It is time to walk those steps to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" into an unsettled, undetermined future.

IN APPRECIATION...

Well, it has been hard work, but lots of fun! As this edition of the "TURKEY TAIL" goes to press after gathering the last details together, we wish to say "thank you" to everyone who has worked so hard in making this book possible.

We wish to say a very special "thank you" to:

Miss Thompson, our advisor, who worked so long and faithfully with us.

Mr. Young, our principal, for his patience and understanding.

All our faculty members for their patience and cooperation during all the class interruptions.

All the wonderful people at Delmar, especially Mr. Mahaffey.

Jack Morris, our photographer, for his willingness to help whenever and wherever he was needed.

Our advertisers and those who contributed financially to our annual. Without their help our annual would be only a dream.

We, the "TURKEY TAIL" Staff of 1960 hope that you will always cherish your annual and enjoy it as much as we enjoyed producing it.

Dear Melvin

Remember the rough times we gave "Mason"
I fell sorry for him because he can't control his class. If I were him I would have thrown us out ages ago. He'll be in the mental hospital in another year.
I bet he is glad when summer vacation starts. I want to be a color guard in the band next year so put in a good for me. I've enjoyed being in of Blue Club with you the past few years. I've enjoyed being in Algebra II with you this year. I hope you and Barbra have a wonderful life together.
You two seem almost made for each other. Both you and Barbra is just as sweet as can be. Good Luck and Best Wishes in the future. You deserve the best in life. See you next year.

Loads of Luck
